

REGISTER MAINTAINED UNDER SECTION 224(1A) OF THE ACT OF AUTHORISED OFFICERS APPOINTED UNDER THAT SECTION.

Statutory Provisions are: -

Local Government Act 1989

224. Authorised officers

- (1) A Council may appoint any person other than a Councillor to be an authorised officer for the purposes of the administration and enforcement of any Act, regulations or local laws which relate to the functions and powers of the Council.
 - (1A) A Council must maintain a register that shows the names of all people appointed by it to be authorised officers.
 - (2) The Council must issue an identity card to each authorised officer.
 - (3) An identity card must—
 - (a) contain a photograph of the authorised officer; and
 - (b) contain the signature of the authorised officer; and
 - (c) be signed by a member of Council staff appointed for the purpose.
 - (3A) If a Council appoints a police officer to be an authorised officer under sub-section (1), for the purposes of this section the police officer's certificate of identity is deemed to be an identity card issued under section 224(2) and is deemed to comply with section 224(3).
 - (4) An authorised officer must produce his or her identity card upon being requested to do so.
 - (5) An action taken or thing done by an authorised person is not invalidated by the failure of an authorised officer to produce his or her identity card.
 - (6) For the purposes of this section, an authorised officer may demand the name and address of a person who has committed, or who the authorised officer reasonably suspects has committed or is about to commit, an offence against any Act, regulation or local law in respect of which he or she is appointed.
 - (6A) In making such a demand, the authorised officer must inform the person of the grounds on which the demand is made in sufficient detail to enable the person to understand the nature of the offence or suspected offence.
- Penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (7) An authorised officer may enter any land or building in the municipal district at any reasonable time to carry out and enforce this or any other Act or any regulation or local law.
- (8) A person is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding 60 penalty units if he or she—
 - (a) refuses to give his or her name and address upon demand by an authorised officer; or
 - (b) obstructs or hinders an authorised officer while performing his or her duty; or
 - (c) falsely represents himself or herself to be an authorised officer.

224A. Police may act as authorised officers to enforce certain local laws

- (1) This section applies if a provision of a local law of a Council regulates the use, possession or consumption of alcohol.
- (2) The Council may publish a notice in the Government Gazette identifying the provision of the local law and stating that any police officer may enforce that provision.
- (3) If the Council publishes such a notice, any police officer may enforce the provision as if he or she was appointed to be an authorised officer under section 224 with respect to the provision.
- (4) For the purposes of sub-section (3), a police officer's certificate of identity is deemed to be an identity card issued under section 224(2) and is deemed to comply with section 224(3).
