

Dandenong Creek Trail

NB: There are many points to access the Dandenong Creek Trail including from Wantirna Road, Simpsons Court, Barrow Drive, Bungalow Road East, Bayswater Road, Connolly Cresent, Allambanan Drive and Toolomerim Avenue.

8km

105mins

One way Marlborough Road to Chandlers Lane

Features Natural setting – Dandenong Creek and bushland

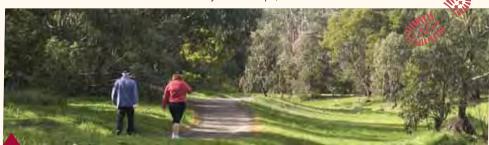

Level of Difficulty Easy to Moderate – Underpasses can be wet Level of Accessibility Good – On the sealed path. Unsuitable for wheelchairs on the gravel section between Marlborough Road and HE Parker Reserve on the northern side due to steep grades

Facilities

Start Location Marlborough Road car park (Melway 63 H3) Public Transport Heathmont and Bayswater Stations xXx 💺 🗥

Refreshments Heathmont and Bayswater Shops, Glen Park Café

Start at the information board and picnic table in Scott Street Reserve next to the car parking area at the end of Marlborough Road. Proceed east along the are toilets, a gravel path or cross over the pedestrian bridge to the sealed path on the south side. Heathmont Station. There is a climb on the gravel path over The Bluff and steep descent back to creek level.

The Trail follows the creek and passes several significant blocks of bushland before reaching HE Parker Reserve where there playground and a trail connection along the railway line to Cross the opedestrian bridge to the southern side onto the sealed path and continue east past Bayswater Park (toilets, Road, There is a trail playground and BBQ's). connection to After the underpass on Bayswater Road you pass Glen Park on the north with picnic facilities, toilets, café and an Indigenous wall mural by Zeta Thomson the Retarding Basin at the Glen Park Community Centre.

The Trail continues tunder Dorset Road and then meanders on the northern side of the creek to Colchester Mountain Highway. The gravel trail continues on to the end of Chandlers Lane which leads to Liverpool Road and car park.