Notes

Part 5 of the Building Regulations 2018 specify the minimum standards and design requirements that apply to single dwellings and associated structures. Council can only consider the Report and Consent regulation/s applied for and does not undertake an assessment of any other aspect of the design.

Lapse of application

An application for Report and Consent will lapse after a period of 3 months from the date a request for further information if the applicant does not supply the required information within this time. In the event that an application has lapsed a new application will need to be submitted with payment of the applicable fee.

Affect of Planning schemes

Part 5 of The Building Regulations do not apply if a planning permit is required for the construction of the building; and the planning scheme regulates the same matter as that regulation in relation to the siting and design of the building. Please check with Council's Statutory Planning Department to ensure that a planning permit is not required for your proposal.

Duration of Consent

The consent of the reporting authority is valid for 12 months from the date of the granted consent & report.
