Maroondah Arts Advisory Committee

Background

The Maroondah Arts Advisory Committee (the Committee) is one of six Council Advisory Committees that provide advice, feedback and input to support the activities of Council in working towards the community vision outlined in Maroondah 2050 - Our future together. These advisory committees inform the policy agenda of Council, collaborate with regional networks and provide authoritative advice on Council services and initiatives.

The Committee was established in 2020 to provide advice and expertise that assists Council in realising the community's vision for a creative and culturally vibrant Maroondah as outlined in key Council cultural policies and strategies.

Role of Committee

- To provide advice and expertise that assists Council in realising the community's vision for a creative and culturally vibrant Maroondah as outlined in Maroondah 2050 and key Council cultural policies and strategies.
- To advise Council on the development, implementation and review of key strategies for the arts, creative industries and cultural development in Maroondah.
- To support Council's role in advocating for the arts in Maroondah.
- Provide advice on key cultural policy and planning considerations.
- Advise on key public art commissions, acquisitions and arts infrastructure development.
- To work towards building partnerships that enhance cultural vibrancy and the sustainability of arts and cultural practice and creative industry in Maroondah vibrancy and cultural richness.
- To establish a collaborative partnership between Council and key community stakeholders.
- To inform and advise Council on key policy issues relating to their portfolio.
- To provide input into the development of strategy, policy, partnership activities and advocacy efforts for related arts, cultural development, and creative industry policy issues in Maroondah.
- To act as the peak Council advisory body on the arts, cultural development and creative industries in Maroondah.

Policy/Strategy Focus

The Committee will focus on a range of policy/strategy areas. This will include but is not limited to the following topics:

- Public art
- Cultural planning
- Cultural heritage
- First Peoples arts and culture
- Arts and cultural initiatives
- Placemaking
- Cultural precincts and venues

The Committee is involved in the development, implementation and review of the following Council policy/strategy documents:

- Maroondah Arts and Cultural Development Strategy 2020-2025
- Public Art Policy 2015
- Art Collection Policy

Relevant Maroondah 2050 Strategic Directions

Primary Outcome area: A vibrant and prosperous community

Community aspiration: Maroondah is a vibrant and prosperous destination. Creative precincts, placemaking and experiences make Maroondah a culturally rich place to live, work, play and visit. Our strategic location and competitive strengths facilitate economic development, and local businesses are supported to be successful and sustainable.

Membership

The appointment of Councillor representatives is conducted on an annual basis in accordance with the Council meeting held in November for the forthcoming calendar year.

All community and creative industry representatives will be appointed for an initial two (2) year term, with an option for a two (2) year extension. Further two (2) year extensions of tenure for community and creative industry representatives may be considered, based on mutual agreement.

Recruitment to Committee positions will be undertaken every four (4) years, within twelve (12) months of a new Council term and during a Committee term as vacancies arise.

The Committee will consist of:

- Councillors - three (3) as appointed annually by Council
- Community and Creative Industry representatives – twelve to fourteen (12-14)
- Director City Growth and Precincts
- Manager Business & Precincts - lead Council management representative
- Creative Places Manager - service area manager
- Council Officers - ex-officio officers to provide administrative support and technical advice. Other

Council officers may attend committee meetings depending on the issues under consideration.

The Committee may also co-opt individuals to provide input as required for specific purposes.

A review of membership for any committee representative will be undertaken should members fail to adhere to the requirements of these Terms of Reference or not attend two (2) consecutive meetings over a 12-month period.

Although attendance by nominated members is preferred, members representing agencies will be encouraged to provide a proxy if they are unable to attend scheduled meetings. Notice must be provided to the lead Council management representative at least three (3) days prior to a meeting that a proxy will be in attendance.

Community and creative industry representatives are not able to nominate proxies to attend committee meetings on their behalf.

As part of their responsibilities, Community and creative industry representatives may be invited to participate in and provide input to a range of stakeholder engagement activities to support strategic activities of Council throughout the Council term. This may include deliberative engagement activities of Council as required by the Local Government Act 2020.

Community and creative industry representatives may resign at any time, in writing to Council.

Committee membership may be terminated by Council for any of the following reasons:

- Failure to attend two (2) consecutive Committee meetings without prior notice.
- The member does not declare a conflict of interest, breaches confidentiality or exhibits unacceptable behaviour.
- The member expresses unauthorised views in a public setting, made specifically on behalf of the Committee or Council.
- The member ceases to live in, work in, or have expertise relevant to the City of Maroondah.
- The member does not adhere to the Code of Conduct as outlined in these Terms of Reference.

Roles and Responsibilities

Chairperson

A Councillor will be appointed as the Chairperson for the Committee. This appointment will be reviewed on an annual basis in accordance with the annual review of Councillor Advisory Committee representation. The duties of the Chair are to chair meetings of the Committee and represent the Committee as required. This may include representing the Committee at any relevant events and acting as the signatory to formal Committee correspondence (e.g. advocacy letters).

Deputy Chairperson

A Councillor will also be appointed as the Deputy Chairperson for the Committee, to act as Chair should the Chairperson be unable to attend a meeting or unavailable to represent the Committee.

Other Roles

Role	Responsibilities
Councillor representatives	Councillor representatives, including those with Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson roles, are involved in developing the agenda for committee meetings, participating in committee discussions, considering feedback and recommendations of the committee, and reporting back to Council on activities of the Committee.
Community and Creative Industry representatives	Community and local industry representatives bring their knowledge, experience and expertise to advise on local issues and challenges and provide advice through advisory committee meetings and associated activities on issues and topics as relevant to the scope of the Committee. Industry representatives may be invited to provide input on Council activities and/or participate in related activities outside formal Committee meetings.
Council management representative/s	An identified Council management representative oversees Committee operations and is the formal point contact point for the Committee.
Council officer representative/s	Ex-officio Council officer representatives provide administrative and technical support to the operation and facilitation of the Committee. Guest Council officers may be invited to present and/or participate in committee meetings depending on the agenda.

Conflict of Interest

In the event of a conflict of interest arising, a Committee Member will disclose their interest prior to the matter being considered. The Chairperson will determine if the member should leave the room whilst the matter is discussed.

Code of Conduct

In performing the role of a committee member, the member must:

- Act with integrity and honesty
- Treat others in a respectful manner
- Exercise reasonable care and diligence
- Not make improper use of their position
- Not make improper use of information acquired because of their position
- Not express any unauthorised views publicly on behalf of the Committee or Council.

Councillor representatives are to abide by the requirements of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

Meetings

- Meetings will be held three (3) to four (4) times per year for approximately one and a half hours. Additional meetings may be held and/or separate sub-committees/working groups may be formed from time to time as issues arise.
- Meetings shall not proceed without a minimum of five (5) community and creative industry representatives, and a minimum of one Councillor representative in attendance. Should a meeting proceed without achieving this number of representatives, formal minutes will not be taken or noted and received at a subsequent Council meeting.
- Members of the Committee may be approached outside of the formal meeting cycle on an individual basis to provide further input into the development of programs, projects or policy matters.
- Meeting Agendas will be set by the lead Council management representative (Manager Business & Precincts) in consultation with the Chairperson.
- Meeting Minutes will be reviewed and approved by the lead Council management representative (Manager Business & Precincts), in consultation with the Chairperson. Minutes of meetings will be noted and received at a Council Meeting and tabled for endorsement at the next possible advisory committee meeting.
- Meetings are conducted in accordance with meeting procedure principles as prescribed by Council's Governance Rules.

Voting Rights

Committee members may be required to vote on procedural matters to reach a consensus. Voting does not extend to include any decision normally made by Council.

Council officers in attendance at meetings provide administrative support and technical advice to the Committee and do not have voting rights.

Committee Minutes

All meetings are to be formally minuted reflecting the role of the Committee as an advisory body, providing advice on issues to Council.

At a minimum, these Minutes are to include:

- The name of Committee
- The date, time and location of the meeting
- Attendees and apologies
- Confirmation of previous minutes
- Conflict of Interest disclosure
- Discussion Items

Circulation of Agenda and Minutes

The Agenda and Minutes from previous meetings will be circulated to members at least five (5) working days prior to each meeting.

The Minutes will be provisionally endorsed and distributed to the Committee at least four (4) weeks after a meeting has taken place. The Minutes will be tabled at a forthcoming Ordinary Meeting of Council.

The Minutes will be endorsed by the Committee at the next meeting.

Report to Council

The Committee will report to Council on an annual basis in relation to the work it has undertaken in the preceding twelve (12) months.

Terms of Reference

The Terms of Reference will be subject to review and Committee endorsement every four (4) years, within twelve (12) months of a new Council term; or earlier if deemed necessary by either Council or the Committee.
